Our Recipe for Success

We have enjoyed continual, steady growth through the years. We attribute our success to the following characteristics:

1. A winning attitude

Customer first! Our customer service specialists are experienced veterans of book building. Backed by a capable workforce and effective management, we are flexible enough to accommodate your needs and special requests.

2. Best combination of resources

- Management expertise from our experienced team
- Motivated workforce in China and Philippines
- Technological capability enhanced by acquiring the best hardware, software, and human skills globally.

3. Continuous improvement

Lean Six Sigma Approach in all areas of our business, which includes our

- Customer-focused philosophy
- Just-in-time production guarantee
- Various improvement practices

We encourage all our employees to seek ways to make our service, process or jobs more efficient and streamlined
